

ASGE 1/2 DAY WORKSHOP FRIDAY, PRE-DDW EXAMPLE

SESSION TITLE: Benign Anorectal Disease

SESSION TYPE: 1/2 day Workshop (Friday, Pre-DDW)

SESSION DURATION: 300 minutes | 5 hours | ½ day

DESCRIPTION: Benign anorectal disease management is in the scope of practice of a gastroenterologist. These disorders include hemorrhoids, anal fissures, pruritus and rectal dyssynergia. These disorders are easy to diagnose and treat in the office setting. There is variability in learning, training, and incorporating this into the GI practice setting. The good news, it is easy to learn and provide a more comprehensive service to your patients with anorectal complaints. Most patients with these ailments do not need surgical intervention and therefore should be managed by the gastroenterologist. This workshop will help you start your own anorectal clinic.

Moderator 1: Dr. XXX

SESSION LEARNING OBJECTIVES 1: Describe steps needed to perform a thorough examination of the anorectum in the office for an accurate diagnosis and assess the severity of the disease. (comprehension)

SESSION LEARNING OBJECTIVES 2: Identify how to treat hemorrhoid disease in the office and be aware of possible complications, knowing when to refer to your surgeon. (knowledge)

SESSION LEARNING OBJECTIVES 3: Compare and Contrast case studies, correctly diagnosing rectal dyssynergia and when to order anorectal manometry. (analysis)

SESSION LEARNING OBJECTIVES 4: Write steps needed on how to start your own anorectal clinic, incorporating this as part of your ongoing clinical offerings. (application)
